

Zohar ha Kaddosh Kedoshim 82a

This is honoring father and mother: That the father will command his son to do something and his son immediately fulfills his father's request without any delay

Zohar ha Kaddosh Yitro 92b-93a

“Honor your father and your mother...” Honor them with all kinds of honor, make them happy with good actions, as it is written: (Mishle 23:24) “The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice”...Just as a man honors the Holy One Blessed be He, in just the same way he needs to honor his father and mother, for they have a partnership with the Holy One Blessed be He, and just as it is necessary to fear the Holy One Blessed be He, in just the same way it is necessary to fear his father and his mother and to honor them with all kinds of honor.

Tikkune Zohar, Hakdama 7b

A son needs to work for his father and mother, and to become for them like a servant, an aid, a chair and a bench underneath .

Pele Yoetz Letter Chaf

And every time that a person heeds the voice of his father or the voice of his mother he fulfills a great Mitzvah Mideoraita [From the Torah]

Sefer Simchat Horim

A person should think to himself: “I have to honor my father and my mother even when I do not feel like honoring them, for I know that the Satan is trying with all his strength to prevent me from performing this Mitzvah, one of the ten commandments, one of the most important, and I will not listen to the advice of the Satan who wants to destroy me and to drive me from this world and from the world to Come”

Kitzur Shulchan Aruch Ch 143

“Just as the reward for the Mitzvah of honoring father and mother is very great, the punishment for transgressing it is very great. And the one who afflicts his parents causes the Shechinah [The presence of Hashem] to separate from him and harsh decrees fall upon him and he is given many sufferings. And even if life smiles on him in this life, he will surely be punished in the World to Come”.
